

Module 4: Celebrating Child Growth

However, when we have reason to believe that a child's welfare is at risk, it is permissible to share confidential information with agencies, as well as with individuals who have legal responsibility for intervening in the child's interest.

P-2.14---In cases where family members are in conflict with one another, we shall work openly, sharing our observations of the child, to help all parties involved make informed decisions. We shall refrain from becoming an advocate for one party.

P-2.15---We shall be familiar with and appropriately refer families to community resources and professional support services. After a referral has been made we shall follow up to ensure that services have been appropriately provided.
